AUGUST 2003

Family Day, September 7

Family Day is Sept. 7 for all members of the 150th Fighter Wing. This year's theme is "Veterans Through the Years." Plan to bring friends and family out to the unit. A good time is guaranteed for all.

Also featured will be a car show. If you have special car, truck, motorcycle, or unusual vehicle during the NMANG Family Day on September UTA, contact MSgt Jim Johnson, MSgt John Wydra, MSgt John McKenzie, or TSgt Dave Randall in the AIS shop at 846-6562 or 846-6143.

New testing hours

Effective 01 July 2003, the 150th Missions Support Flight – Education and Training Office will offer testing every day of the week, Monday through Friday from 0845-1200. Unit personnelists and or training managers from each of the organizations will be appointed as Test Examiners to help administer the test. We hope this new test schedule will provide unit members the flexibility they have been asking for.

Please contact the training office prior to testing requirement whenever possible and arrive at MPF by 0845. POC is SMSgt Carmen Quintana at 6-7499.

Pre-retirement training for technicians

The Human Resources Office is planning to conduct pre-retirement training for full-time technicians within 10 or so years of retirement. The training is planned for 13-15 August in Santa Fe. If you fall within this group, have not already attended this type training, and are interested in attending, please contact Steve Moya at DSN 867-8295 or via email at steve.moya@nm.ngb.army.mil.
